Hail to Thee, Our Alma Mater

Words by E. Turner Stump  Music by Dwight Steere

From the beauty land Ohio comes an universal praise,
'Tis the song of Alma Mater that her sons and daughters raise.
'Tis a Hail to Kent State College, on the Cuyahoga shore,
Shouted by the loving thousands as they sing it o'er and o'er.

Chorus:
Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater,
O' how beautiful thou art,
High enthroned upon the hilltop,
Reigning over ev'ry heart.

From the hilltop Kent State College, gazing on her portal wide,
Sees the coming generations as they throng to seek her side,
Seek her side to win her blessing, throng her gates to bear her name,
Leave her gates to sing her praises; go afar to spread her fame.

Chorus:

To the Students

This Annual has been edited with the hope of presenting in an orderly fashion the students, faculty, administration and activities of the year.

It is hoped that in future years this book will bring memories of the school year as it actually was.

My dear Young People,

Colleges everywhere are passing through a refining fire. The process will separate the gold from the dross—found with it.

In the early days of national prosperity it seemed next to matter much how great the percentage of waste that was worked. Of late, some gold was found. Now, to change the figure, tax-payers ask why they should spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to keep young men and women in college if they lack interest in its major activities.

Can you stand the test? If so, you will keep your place. If not...

Sincerely yours,

J.E. Englemann

In September one of the questions most frequently put to Freshmen is—Where are you from? In June, we put the question to Seniors this way—Where are you going?

Where ever you go, graduates of Kent State, remember you are going to show the communities where you dwell what Kent State has been able to produce. In a most vital way you are Kent State. In the end, every college is judged by its alumni. By far the largest, and possibly the most important part of the college is beyond the campus, out in the counties of Ohio and beyond—beyond at points as far separated as southern Florida and the Philippines. Every graduation is a time of strengthening the stakes and lengthening the cords of Alma Mater.

Graduates of 1932, as you go out, you carry our best wishes for success, and for happiness that comes from devoted service in whatever lines of work you find your vocations.

Dean Manchester

This is a greeting from the Men of Kent State College to the faculty, alumni, and student body. It is also an expression of optimistic faith in the future of the institution and a pledge of enthusiastic support for all activities and programs designed to promote the welfare of the college.

We are proud to claim membership in the great family of Kentonians, confident that with the passing years our college will grow and prosper. We are sure that Kent will always keep the door of opportunity open to those seeking knowledge and inspiration and always exert a powerful influence upon the life of the community.

The college is growing and with its growth comes increasing opportunities for the college students, faculty, and the college itself to expand its sphere of activity and influence.

Kent is rapidly moving to the front.

Scene from "Cock Robin"
President's Message to the Seniors

My Dear Young Friends:

You are about to leave Kent State College, some of you with a bachelor's degree and all of you with a diploma. Already you are wondering what next year has in store for you, and whether your education will have for you an immediate cash value. And because I know what is in your mind, I am writing this brief message to you.

There is not one of you who is not equipped to fill some position for which you were not even eligible for consideration when you entered Kent. The position, however, may not be open. Many of you will have to wait for it,—some, a year, others perhaps more. Has your education, therefore, been in vain? Surely not. Suppose you had not gone to college. What would you be doing now,—and next year, and later?

While you wait for your chance, look within. Is your life any richer because of what you got here from teachers, books and fellow students? Are your interests multiplied, your pleasures refined, your sympathies quickened, your capacities for useful service developed, your ambitions aroused, your standards of personal and civic conduct higher now than when you came? If so, these other things,—position, salary, opportunity and promotion will be added unto you in due time. In the meantime you already have the best the college had to give.

Bi-Centennial Parade

Pictured at the bottom of the panel is the line of march on the Washington Bi-Centennial program. Faculty members lead the march and seniors followed.

Following the procession, a program was given in honor of the Father of our country. Dr. A. S. Roberts was in charge of the program.
Junior-Senior Prom

Wills Gymnasium was the scene of the annual Junior-Senior Prom held on Friday, April 8th.

Ample decorations made the gym attractive and created an atmosphere which enabled the students to enjoy the dance.

This affair is now among the annual events of the college and is considered the high spot of the college social calendar. Attractive leather programs, which can be preserved as memories of college days, and excellent music blended themselves to the success of the prom.

As customary, the dance was formal.

Kent State Grows

The enrollment for the fall term of this year took a leap up to more than 1300 students. This number was far greater than ever before during a regular school term quarter.

Again in the winter term the enrollment set a high mark, reaching the 1250 mark.

Kent State's new Liberal Arts college along with the many courses offered in the field of education has attracted large numbers of students during the past few years. With the present rate of increasing enrollment, it appears as though the student body may soon reach the proportions of the larger colleges of the state.

Scholarship Tests
Teacher Conventions

Due to its ideal location and facilities available, Kent State is the scene of the annual scholarship examinations held each spring for the outstanding students in the high schools of northeastern Ohio.

The winners of this district go to Columbus for participation in the state finals.

Being one of the outstanding teachers' institutions in this section of the state, along with the excellent Liberal Arts college, Kent State is the scene of annual teachers' conventions of Northeastern Ohio.

Invitations are extended to all high schools in the allotted portion of the state and beneficial discussions are held on subjects of interest and importance in the field of education.

An ideal opportunity is presented for the exchange of ideas for advancement in education.

Kent State Becomes a Member of the Ohio College Association

Kent State College has been granted membership in the Ohio College Association. This action resulted after a thorough inspection of the school by officials of this group.

Membership has come about through the recent inauguration of the Liberal Arts college here and the high standard of work which is being offered here. The Association grew out of a group of former Liberal Arts colleges of religious denominations.

Admittance to this selected circle is a real asset to Kent State. Membership is granted only to schools which pass the rigid requirements set down by the organization.

This is a real boost for Kent State and shows the rapid progress and rise of the college. This paves the way for the athletic teams' full membership in the Ohio Conference.
Summer School

Two full terms of school are offered students during the summer sessions. The first term lasts for a period of six weeks, while the second extends over the period of five weeks.

Many of the regular school year students take advantage of this period to earn extra credit hours and to assist them in completing their courses within a shorter period.

The remainder of the enrollment consists of students who are out in the field teaching or in other lines of work. They return for higher degrees or to help round out a personal education.

There are two graduations during the summer. One is at the end of the first school term in June, the other comes at the conclusion of the second term in August.

Tournaments

Wills gymnasium has proved to be a real asset to Kent State during the years of its existence here. It not only supplies ample room for the college sports, but also, on account of its ample accommodations, has attracted many tournaments.

The annual county class “B” tournaments in basketball are held in the gym every spring, followed by the district tourney in the same class and then the sectional meet. The winners of the latter play for the state championship at Columbus.

During the past year, the state inter-collegiate wrestling championships were held in Wills gym.

Season Summary

The Golden Flashes finished their third undefeated season on the Rockwell gridiron when they emerged from the 1931 campaign with a record of three victories and four defeats.

At the first class for candidates, fifty men answered. Coach Wagoner conducted a series of hard workouts, tests, and trials before selecting three teams with which to go through the season.

In training the men for the season, Wagoner was assisted by Joe Begala, head wrestling and tennis coach. Wagoner worked with the backfield men, while Begala trained the linemen.

Charles "Cocky" Kilbourne, former outstanding Flash athlete, coached the Frosh and sent his crew against the varsity in numerous scrimmages. He was aided by Ted Sapp, also a former all-around Kent star.

Minus the services of Kilbourne, Stejskal, Barry and Sapp, the local mentors were confronted with the problem of filling a gap in the line and finding a new backfield. This was the situation when the untested and untried Blue and Gold eleven took the field against the Yeomen at Oberlin.

Two men, both making their debut as regulars on their respective teams were the luminaries in the tilt.

Barry, the Congregationalists backfield ace, worked behind a line composed of veterans, including four lettermen. Walt Taylor, on the other hand had to work behind a green front wall, depending on breaks and the hope that the line would hold long enough for him to clear his pass or get away a punt.

During the last period of the encounter, played under a broiling sun, the Flashes unleashed a passing attack that resulted in a touchdown and the result was 12-6 victory for Oberlin.

MIGRATION DAY

The second week of the reign of King Pigskin, brought the annual Migration day game at Buchtel field with Akron. Kent entered the game as the underdog but it was only the insatiable Zipper jinx that gave the Blaimen a 12-6 decision.

The first half of the game took place in mid-field and ended with a scoreless tie. However, in the third canto, 'old man jinx' made his appearance and a pair of Akron touchdowns.

Mericola lost a punt in the sun while standing on his own 10 yard strip. The ball bounced and struck his helmet and was recovered by a Zipper man who carried it across for the first tally.

The play was a very unusual one and the sudden jump of Akron into the lead caused the local aggregation to crumble momentarily and permitted the Akronites to tally another.

However, the Wagonerites recovered their old fight and unleashed a passing attack for a touchdown. Another parade toward the Akron goal posts was started soon after the kickoff but ended when Taylor’s pass was intercepted on the hosts’ 25 yard marker.

MT. UNION GAME

Mount Union entertained Coach Wagoner’s proteges at Alliance in the third game. Pre-winter snow and rain turned the Hartshorne stadium into a veritable quagmire. The continual storm was of little help to the lighting facilities and the heavy Purple were at home in the sea of mud.

Coach Thorpe’s combine scored two touchdowns in the first quarter and one in each of the following two, being held scoreless in the final session. Only one of the touchdowns came as a result of straight football, the other three followed blocked punts.

Kent threatened at the start of the third quarter with a march of three successive first downs brought the oval to the opponent’s 28 yard line. The final score was 25-0.

A week’s layoff seemed to be of little benefit to the Golden Flashes. Baldwin-Wallace buried the local eleven under a 31-0 score after an evenly played first quarter.
The break came when Taylor, as safety man dropped a Yellow Jacket punt on the 18, from where it carried over as the first of three markers in the second quarter, and one in each of the remaining two.

Deke Abbott broke away on 50 and 65 yard runs in the last session. However the Bereans quickly ended these spurts toward their goal line by intercepting Taylor’s passes.

HOMECOMING

A bruised and battered Kent State gridiron team finally opened the home stand of three appearances. The homecoming game with Capital was the first attraction on the Rockwell gridiron. The greatest home coming crowd in the history of the sport greeted the two rivals as they took the field.

Taylor reeled off a 69 yard run around end for the first touchdown on the third play of the game. Abbott hit the line for the extra point.

Capital elected to receive and returned the ball with a punt. The Blue and Gold started a parade of four first downs and Abbott plunged over for the touchdown and Taylor converted with a drop kick.

In the second session the visitors held their ground and Kent failed to register.

In the third quarter Taylor scored two markers on runs from outside the 35 yard line. During this period Capital made its second first down of the tilt.
During the final canto, Mericola intercepted a Capital pass and tore off a 45 yard dash for the last score of the game.

DEFEAT OF OTTERBEIN

The second home appearance brought the powerful Otterbein aggregation with a record of one defeat in six starts. However, Abbott, Taylor and Co. took the field with their old reputation of "record spoilers" in mind and emerged with the second victory of the year, 6-0.

Late in the second quarter, Housely blocked an Otterbein punt and Dunlavy covered the ball back of the goal line to treat the faithful who braved the cold and rain to another win.

The remainder of the fracas was a punting duel wherein the Flash combine had the edge. The 20 yard line was the nearest that the Westerville outfit could come to the Blue and Gold posts.

Gear made the longest gain in the sea of mud when he broke through for 21 yards.

A scrappy Hiram college team helped the Wagoner-Begala, Inc. to close the season with a victory on the home field. Playing the Flashes to a standstill in all but the second canto when the locals pushed over the lone score. Abbott and Taylor made runs of 25 yards but the going was slow in the rain-drenched gridiron. The final score was 7-0.
BASKETBALL

One hundred nineteen
Season Summary

Only three years in the history of basketball at Kent rivaled the season just completed. These were 1916, 1917, and 1921.

The reason for the poor showing was due to lack of material. This year scholastic difficulties confronted the Golden Flashes, as well as serious injuries.

Heidelberg won a close one in the opening encounter and the strong Muskingum quintet was downed by Wagoner's combine, before the issuing of grade.

Being forced to build a new combine around Hall—who was forced out of play shortly afterwards by an injury—Coach Wagoner rounded his team into a promising five, even though no other victories were recorded.

Mount Union was the first team to meet the ruined Flashes on the Alliance court. The champions encountered little difficulty in taking a 52-9 decision.

Coach Wagoner had a chance to see how his quintet worked on the defense in the Akron game in Wills gym. The score see-sawed back and forth listlessly and the Zippers finally won, 21-18.

Another game on the local hardwood was feature by a low score with Hiram, 26-16.

The next two tilts were on foreign territory, the former taking a 43-19 victory while the conference runners up administered the severest walloping of the season the next night, 65-15.

THE CHAMPS HERE

Local cage followers were treated to a classy exhibition of basketball the following week when the Mount Union aggregation made their annual visit. The Blue and Gold combine provided plenty of fast opposition for the visitors although the score shows little indication, following a last half rush by the Purple. The final total was 52-25.

Three more games were played away from home and each showed an improving Golden Flash five. Baldwin-Wallace won, 52-18; Western Reserve, 50-23; while the last at Hiram almost resulted in a victory for the Wagonerites, 32-30.

Baldwin-Wallace opened the home stand of four appearances by rallying in the second session to win out, 33-24. Gintert, Carl and Co. opened up in the Otterbein encounter forcing the Prohibitionists to a 57-39 result.

Coach Boles' big 'Berthas' from Wooster shelled out a 50-37 score in a nicely played feud.

After leading at the half, the Flashes crumbled and lost their last chance to win, and Kenyon eeked out a 30-26 decision before a large county tournament crowd.

Gintert, a sophomore, led the team in playing time. Of the ten lettermen, only two were not members of the second year class, they being Nicholson, junior, and Hall, senior.

IN CONFERENCE

As a result of action taken by the Ohio College's Association in admitting Kent State as a full fledged member, the athletic teams have been given full membership in the Ohio Conference.

The Freshmen team was under the supervision of Charles “Cocky” Kilbourne and Ted Sapp, former stellar Flash Athletes. Material is developed for the varsity squad and lively scrimmages are held. Much promising material is included in the above roster.

Freshmen Basketball

This group practises daily in preparation for entering the eligibility list for the varsity squad in the following year. Kilbourne is coach of this group also.
Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders appeared at all home games and many of the away-from-home games this year. The new uniforms, in the school colors of Blue and Gold, give these yell-leaders an attractive appearance as they encourage the team.

WRESTLING
Winning four and losing three of their meets, Coach Joe Begala's Blue and Gold wrestlers closed a season which was consistently marred with injuries and illness. No card saw the complete Flash lineup intact.

Opening with an easy victory over the Akron Zippers, 36½ to 1½, the Golden Flashes next traveled to Columbus and lost to Ohio State, 23-3.

Case School of Applied Science furnished the opposition for the third meet. The score of 16-14 indicates the fact that the match was not decided until the final bout. With the score at 11-all, Lukens surprised a large home crowd by pinning his opponent, and Shelly finessed a time victory to Case.

With Hisner and Secrist on the hospital list, Ohio U. won from the Kentites, 25-13. The feature of the meet was the fall victory over the champion Stanley, by Straub.

Fenn college's matmen were defeated in the curtain raiser to the Wooster cage tilt, 26-8.

A number of men left their sick beds to travel to Cleveland where the Reserve Red Cats had to use all they had to win 20-10.

Fresh from a tie with West Virginia Wesleyan, which had trounced Kent's opponent of the previous week, Waynesburg took a 21-11 defeat from the Begala-men, in the Pennsylvania hills.

Kent placed five men in the finals of the Ohio Inter-collegiate Wrestling championships in the Wills gymnasium. Miller, Baker, Dunlavy, Lukens and Shelly all lost by referee's decisions on the last night. Reserve and Ohio U. tied for the team championship.

Bagala will have a number of the lettermen back for next year's squad. A powerful crew of freshman wrestlers have been working out daily and promises to make competition keen for those aspiring for the 1933 varsity.

A heavy schedule, including Carnegie Tech, Washington and Jefferson, and others has been lined up for next year.

Track and Baseball

Kent State's representatives in the spring sports encountered a disastrous season. The cinder-pounders dropped three successive meets to Hiram, Akron and Baldwin-Wallace.

Kilbourne and Moore placed on the pole-vault event in the Big Six track meet. Blue and Gold men also participated in the Ohio Relays at the Buckeye stadium at Columbus.

Coach Merle Wagoner's crew of horse-hide chasers suffered a similar fate on the diamond. Of the eight games booked the Golden Flashes came out of but one tilt on the long end of the score.

Baldwin-Wallace came to the Rockwell diamond with a clear record of seven victories, for the spring home-coming attraction, but failed to do anything with the slants of the veteran, Mose Hall.

Hall was the moundsman for the majority of the encounters while Leggett relieved him, when necessary.

Gatchell, Baker, Shelly and Taylor took the leading positions of the Kent batting averages.
Tennis

The Spring of 1931 saw the completion of the clay courts behind the Wills gymnasium and the appearance of a Blue and Gold tennis team.

The Begalamen played a schedule of five meets, taking three and dropping two. Teams were played from Muskingum, Mount Union, Ashland, and Hiram.

Gene Traxler was the outstanding performer during the year, going to the finals of consolation series in the state tournament at Kenyon college. George Warman won a majority of his sets on the courts.

The outlook for this year is bright with Traxler, Jones, and Willetts returning to form the nucleus for a veteran team.
Swimming—Gym

Early this year saw the formation of Gym and Swimming clubs. These are both sponsored by Prof. Geo. J. Altman, director of intra-mural activities.

The natators scheduled exhibition meets in the Wills gymnasium tank and away with teams from the Y. M. C. A. of Akron and Cleveland and various clubs.

Prof. Altman's apparatus proteges were seen in exhibition performances with teams from the nearby cities.

Interest in these activities is on the rise and it is hoped that the Blue and Gold will send out teams as official representatives of the institution.
INTRA-MURAL
Men's Intra-Murals

Professor George J. Altmann, aided by the Intra-mural council, composed of representatives of all teams entered has a variety of sports for non-varsity men to compete in.

The fall program consisted of a Cross-Country run during the half of the Home-coming game, volleyball, horseshoes, and handball.
Winter sports were basketball, swimming, a gym meet, and wrestling. Points are awarded to the teams as to the order they finish and the winner at the end of the school year receives a handsome plaque.

The winning wrestling team receives the Joe Begala trophy as well as points on the regular intra-mural plaque. There is deep enthusiasm in these sports.

Women’s

Women’s Athletic Association

In this organization, women students, interested in physical education, find many opportunities for participation in sports. A varied program is offered.

Women’s “K” Club

Women earning enough points to receive a women’s varsity “K” letter are grouped together in this association.

Standing: G. McKeown, Professor G. Drew
Sitting (L-R)—V. Johnson, J. Stadler, V. Dance, T. Weiss.

W. A. A. Board

This is the controlling board of women’s sports. Members plan and supervise the year’s activities.

Standing: Prof. R. Bass, Prof. G. Drew.
Sitting (L-R)—J. Stadler, A. Laird, G. McKeown, V. Dance.
Sports

Individual Sports Winners

These girls were victorious in the various individual sports offered throughout the year by the W.A.A. Association.

The Junior Team

This group won the competitive class sports offered for women students.

The Shark’s Club

To become a member of this organization, one must be a good swimmer and maintain an interest in this diversion.
Women's Athletic Association--Men's Intra-Murals

The Women's Athletic Association, a national organization, has gained real prominence on Kent State's campus. The large number of women enrolled in the physical education courses enables it to have a large membership.

A varied list of sports are outlined and enable the women students to enjoy recreational games which will be of real value to them in the field of physical education.

The Men's Intra-murals are based upon competition between the various fraternities and men's organizations on the campus. Likewise, it consists of a varied program which enable those not out for varsity sports to enjoy these sports and their benefits.

Summer School of the Theatre

The first Summer School of the Theatre for Kent State College opens June 13 under the direction of Professor E. Turner Stump. The curriculum offers an intensive course in all the theatre arts including lectures on the history of the modern drama by Professor Griebling, on Shakespeare by Professor Packard, on historic costume by assistant Professor Jordan and on speech and makeup by Professor Stump.

Laboratory courses in stage craft and scenic design as well as acting and direction will also be under the supervision of Prof. Stump with the aid of a student assistant.

Two major productions are planned, one of which will be given in the auditorium and the other in the open air. Rehearsals will take place on alternate days.

The purpose of The Summer School of the Theatre is to provide a complete and comprehensive course in the theatre arts as preparation for high school or Little Theatre direction.

Kent, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Kelly:

I enclose my judgments on the Beauty Contest photographs which you forwarded to me, naming five contestants numerically according to my opinion.

You understand that it is very difficult to make decisions from photographs and that my findings can be determined only through them and not based on the charm of the actual person.

I base my opinions on what the camera shows of regularity of features, animation and charm.

I hope these judgments will meet with the general approval of the school board.

Sincerely yours,

Pan Hellanic and Inter-Fraternity Council

Greek letter policies on the campus are regulated by two governing bodies, Pan-Hellenic and The Inter-Fraternity Council. Each sorority is represented in Pan-Hellenic by members and faculty advisors. Officers are chosen to preside over the meetings at which business concerning the sororities, as a whole, is discussed and voted upon.

Pledging, rush parties, Greek-letter dances, etc., are among the items that come under the rule of this association.

The Inter-Fraternity council is but recently organized and has not adopted as definite a program as the Pan-Hellenic association. Deferred pledging and other topics of fraternal importance are to be ruled upon.

HONORARIES
As a reward for outstanding work in dramatics, membership is granted in the National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity, Alphi Psi Omega.

Officers are: Grand Director, Louise Hamilton; Grand Business Manager, Mildred Pyle, and Grand Stage Manager, Don Cook.

Chi Pi

Chi Pi is the honorary journalistic fraternity. Membership is gained through meritorious work on The Kent Stater, college paper, or Chestnut Burr, college annual.

Officers are: President, Harold Jones; Vice-President, Joe Kelly; Treasurer, Glen Oyster; Secretary, Arthur Hommel.
Freshmen Players

Freshmen dramatists who show promising talent and put forth extended effort in dramatics are given membership in the Freshmen Players.

Officers are: President, Malvern Randels, and Secretary, Dorothy Bowles.

Kappa Gamma

As a result of outstanding performance in debate and other speech activities, students are invited to join Kappa Gamma, honorary fraternity.

Late in April this group formed a National Forensic fraternity. E. Turner Stump was elected national president. Kent is the Alpha Chapter.

Officers are: President, Ralph McGinnis, and Vice-President, Charles Atkinson.
To become a member of Lanbdi Chi, one must have done excellent work in art and must be interested in the study and advancement of it.

Officers of this group are: President, William Martin; Secretary, Emily Fornhan; Treasurer, Harold Schoup.

Madrigal Club

Music lovers have taken the opportunity of getting together for discussions and programs through the medium of the Madrigal Club, one of Kent’s newest.

Officers are: President, Nelson Gouger; Vice-President, Edward Merrill, and Secretary, Evelyn Dick.
Men who have won varsity K's in one sport or another have formed an association which meets regularly for the advancement of athletics here.

Officers are: President, Ted Sapp; Vice-President, James Shelly; Treasurer, James Menough; Secretary, Kermit Taylor.

Velvet Curtain Players

Velvet Curtain Players is a group for outstanding dramatists. Membership in Alphi Psi Omega honorary dramatic fraternity, results upon further experience and performance in drama.

Officers are: President, Charles Atkinson; Vice-President, Elizabeth Rufener, and Secretary-Treasurer, Vida Kumse.
Beta Psi Cast, the Kent State chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, has been especially honored this year by the national fraternity. The Grand Rehearsal held at St. Louis, Mo., November 27 and 28, returned Professor E. Turner Stump as National Grand Director for another five year term.

Arthur Hommel, delegate of Beta Psi Cast, was appointed Editor of the national publication, "The Call Board", and Dale White, alternate, served as chairman of the Credentials Committee at the convention.

Although Prof. Stump was not originally a member of Beta Psi Cast, having been previously connected with Beta Cast at Marshall College, his present affiliation with Kent State College makes Kent the executive headquarters of the largest national honorary dramatic fraternity in the country.
GOVERNMENT
Inter-Fraternity Council

This group is composed of the president and one representative of each fraternity. Laws for the conduction of fraternal policies on the campus are made and beneficial discussions held.

Officers are: President, Harley Seiss, and Secretary, John Watkins.

Kent State Council

This group is composed of representative women and men and the dean, as advisors. Publication of college directories, conduction of college dances, etc., are in charge of this advisory group.

Officers are: Chairman, Harvey Stahl, and Secretary, Emily Farnham.
Pan-Hellenic Officers

Pan-Hellenic is an organization in which each sorority on the campus is represented. Laws governing the sorority policies on the campus are made and enforced.

Officers are: President, Luella Conzette; Recording Secretary, Ruth Watkins; Corresponding Secretary, Maxine Lechleitner, and Treasurer, Marjorie Russell.

Executive Social Committee

This group was selected from the membership of the college social committee. It acts in an executive capacity in the supervision of college social life.

Officers of the college Social Committee are: Chairman, Prof. E. C. Stopher; Secretary, Bury F. Engleman, and Chairman Executive Committee, Dean Blanche E. Verder.
The College Social Committee

Included in the membership of the college social committee, are representatives of all organizations on the campus.

Meetings are held regularly to discuss the social life of the college and rules and regulations are made concerning dances and other social events.

From the general social committee, an executive committee was elected. This group considers the various problems of the social committee and acts in an executive capacity.

Officers of the general social committee are: Chairman, Prof. E. C. Stopher; Secretary, Buryl F. Engleman. Dean Blanche A. Verder is chairman of the executive committee.

One hundred eighty-six
The Kent Stater, college weekly newspaper, now completing its sixth year of existence, has in the past year made many improvements that are expected to place it even higher in state collegiate journalistic circles than last year, when it was adjudged the third best paper in the state. Honors were also won in national contests.

In addition to internal improvements the paper has functioned efficiently as a laboratory ground for students of the college journalism classes. Classes in headline writing, makeup and advanced reporting, in addition to that in elementary reporting, have done valuable practical work on The Stater.

During the year the staff averaged about 50 members, in all departments. Social events were held and the staff, with the assistance of Professors Griebling and Engleman, played host to the fall convention of the Ohio College Newspaper Association. The paper was also represented at the spring convention at Wittenberg.

Harold Jones, a junior, is editor, and Buryl F. Engleman is faculty advisor of the publication.

JOSEPH KELLY
Editor

Considerable time and effort has been put forth in preparation of this volume in an effort to produce an annual which will meet with the approval of the students, faculty, administration, and friends of the college.

The theme chosen is one which represents scenes very familiar to every Kent Stater and should help, during the years to come, bring back vivid memories of Kent State.

In arranging the book two factors—first, to follow the customary procedure for publications of this type and second, to keep in line with the theme of the book as much as possible—were given prime consideration.

The registrar’s records were consulted in placing students in their respective class groups and for the spelling of names. The winter term standing of the students being taken for classification in this book.

Even with these precautions, errors of classification and spelling will undoubtedly result in some cases. The editors hope that the number of such cases will be at a minimum.
Ohio College Newspaper Association Convention

During the early part of December, the fall convention of the Ohio College Newspaper Association was held at Kent State. This brought to the campus representatives of the foremost Ohio colleges.

Three rooms in the east wing of the library, on the first floor, were converted into convention headquarters. Registration of delegates, business sessions, and general discussions were held here.

Banquets for the group were held in the Lowry hall dining room; housing was taken care of through the courtesy of Greek letter organizations and private homes, and various means of welcoming and hospitality were supplied by members of The Stater staff and Chi Pi, honorary journalistic fraternity.
DRAMA
The Kent State College Theatre, since its inception a year ago, has grown tremendously. The total membership this year has exceeded 130, which is a worthy expression of the interest that has been aroused in dramatics at the college.

Professor E. Turner Stump, director, supervises the College Theatre and draws upon its membership for his play casts and technical staffs. The student manager presides over the theatre meetings, appoints the department heads and sees that the various departments function. He also prepares and files the records of individual as well as organization activities.

Under the departmental system, into which The College Theatre is divided, seven major productions, "The Melting Pot", "Icebound", "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs", "Cock Robin", "Craig's Wife", "The Cradle Song", and "The Wooden Kimono" have been successfully presented before capacity audiences.
Debate Progresses Rapidly

Kent State's debating teams have made rapid progress in their forensic activities, during this school year. The teams have participated in some twenty-five debates, winning over sixty per cent of the contests.

A conference of Ohio College Debating teams was entered and inter-collegiate debates held. Schools met in the conference and otherwise included: Capital, Otterbein, Bluffton, Akron U., Mount Union, Baldwin-Wallace, Miami, Ypsilanti, and others.

The first radion debate in the history of the college was held with Fairmount State Teachers college of West Virginia. These representatives took part in a national honorary fraternity's convention at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Forensic activities have been greatly stimulated here by Director E. Turner Stump and his assistant, Prof. Kenneth Pringle. Large squads of interested men point out a wealth of material for coming years.

As an innovation, a women's debate team was formed. The first opponent was Wittenberg college. More is expected from this group during the coming year.

Departments of Speech and Journalism

At a Board of Trustees meeting, held in April, it was decided to inaugurate departments of Speech and Journalism at the beginning of the fall term. Up until that time, the work along these lines comes under the jurisdiction of the English department.

Professor E. Turner Stump is to head the department of Speech, and Professor Beryl F. Engleman will head the Journalism department.

Many new courses will be offered in these departments.
Women's Glee Club

All women students of the college are eligible for membership in this organization. Rehearsals are held regularly and programs are presented at different intervals.

Men's Glee Club

The Men's Glee club is composed of men students interested in glee club work and in developing their abilities as singers.

Officers of the club are: President, Don Housley, and Business Manager, Harold Gear.
The Mixed Chorus

Members of the Women's and Men's Glee clubs and other interested students, combine their voices in the formation of a mixed chorus. This group was presented in a concert during the year.

The Quartette

They appeared on several music programs given during the year.
The Orchestra

Work is given in the study of orchestral instruments as well as actual practice in orchestration for both students in the music department and all others desiring to play with the group.

During the National Music week, a program was given in the college auditorium.Appearances were also made at assemblies, plays, etc.

The Band

Snappy uniforms and a well-trained drum major help the band to present a striking appearance at football and basketball games.

A concert was given during the winter term in connection with the Men's Quartette.

Prof. Roy Metcalf directs both the band and orchestra.
Music Department and Activities

The music department of the college, one of the fastest growing departments, offers courses in voice, piano, orchestra and band instruments, and organ. Aside from these applied music courses, work is offered in the Men’s Glee club; the Women’s Glee club; the Mixed Chorus; Band, orchestra, and string ensemble.

Among the important activities of the school year was the Christmas concert given during December. It featured a Christmas Cantata in which the Women’s Glee club took a prominent part.

During the winter term, the Band and Men’s Glee club combined their talents to present a program. This was the first of its type to be given and is expected to be an annual affair. Along with the band and glee club, the men’s quartette and vocalists were featured.

On April 21, the Men’s Glee club presented an interesting and entertaining program in the college auditorium. This was followed by the observance of National Music Week, during which two programs were given by the music department.

One of the programs was presented by the mixed chorus and Girl’s Glee club, the other by the orchestra.

Music at assembly, at football games, at basketball games, for the annual W. A. A. Circus and other activities is supplied by this department.

Plans are being formulated for a band concert to be given annually during the summer term.
Conference on Special Subjects

Among the many worth-while projects conducted by Kent State College this year was the conference on special subjects.

Teachers who graduated from Kent State or attended Kent State at some time and are teaching either Art, Commerce, Home Economics, Manual Training, Music, or Physical Education were invited to attend this conference.

Each group met in separate rooms for conferences. Teachers invited from the high schools, heads of the college departments and their assistants, along with special speakers met to discuss problems in their particular field.

The success assures a continuance of these conferences annually.
OTHER CLUBS
AND ORGANIZATIONS
Students interested in the study of Biology and its advancement on the campus have formed a Biology club which meets at regular intervals at which appropriate, interesting programs are presented.

Officers are: President, Park Welton; Vice President, Fred Drew; Secretary, Maxine Hoen; and Treasurer, John Funk.

Commerce Club

Students in the Commercial department meet each month at which time a speaker of note along some subject of interest, commercially, is presented.

Officers of this organization are: President, Kenneth Teeters; Vice President, Roy Nesbit; and Secretary, Janet Jones.
French Club

Le Cercle Français, Kent’s French club, has as its object a deeper study and keener appreciation of French programs to bring about this result are held regularly.

Officers are: President, Lucile Price; Vice President, Ruth Apley; and Secretary-Treasurer, Harriet Wilson.

Kindergarten-Primary Club

Students majoring in the Kindergarten-Primary course have formed a club at which problems and subjects of interest are discussed.

Officers are: President, Margaret Carroll; Secretary, Lois Akers; Treasurer, Adelaide Walker.
Manual Arts Club

Students in the manual Arts department have grouped themselves into a club which discusses problems and projects of interest in this field and in the field of the teaching of kindred subjects.

Officers are: President, Abe Swartz; Vice President, Eli Stiegner; Secretary, Fred Kloha; and Treasurer, Delbert Wishart.

Mathematics Club

Aside from the regular meetings of this organization, a banquet is held each year at which well-known teachers of mathematics are present to discuss the latest developments in this field.

Officers of the club are: President, Chalmers Weaver; Vice President, Vide Kumse; and Secretary, Lucille McKiernan.
Off-Campus Women's Club

All women students, residing off-campus, are entitled to membership of this organization. A room is maintained for them in Merrill hall.

Officers are: President, Anne Conrad; Vice President, Elizabeth Rufener; and Secretary, Lucille Ewell.

Physical Education Club

Majors and minors in physical education are grouped together in this physical education club. The club’s big event of the year is the annual banquet at which outstanding physical education directors speak.
Membership to this organization comes upon registration to all women students of the college. It is a medium through which acquaintances are made and it strives to keep the women students as one organized association.

Officers are: President, Elizabeth Rufener; Vice President, Rosemary Price; Secretary, Maxine Lechleitner, and Treasurer, Mary Helen Swope.

Home Economics Club
PRACTICE HOUSE

Home Economics is the central theme around this organization. The practice house, for members of the department, is pictured above with those practicing there during the spring term.

Officers are: President, Rita Spafford; Secretary, Winifred Smith; and Treasurer, Eunice Hines.
The Young Men's Christian Association is open to all men students of the college. Discussions and programs for the benefit of the religious and social life on the campus are held. Officers are: President, John Hastings; Vice President, Clarence Ellett; Secretary, Harold Law; and Treasurer, Russell Coner.

Similar in its scope to the Y. M. C. A., the Young Women's Christian Association is a medium for religious and social discussions for its members. Officers are: President, Dorothy Brenisen; Vice President, Ruth Timpe; Secretary, Josephine Geraci; and Treasurer, Margaret Topliff.
Poetry Club

Among the latest of organizations to appear on the campus is the Poetry club. The group is sponsored by Dean Blanche E. Verder and interested students.

To become a member, one must write, at least, one acceptable poem. These are read at meetings along with a study of other poetry.

It is hoped, by this method, to arouse an interest in poetry and to give an opportunity for aspiring poets to exchange ideas, etc., with others of similar interests.

Marjorie Russell, of New Castle, Penna., was elected as temporary president at the second meeting of the club.

AN APPRECIATION

We have enjoyed keenly our work in producing this edition of the CHESTNUT BURR.

The laudable ambition of Joseph Kelly and the staff, to make the best CHESTNUT BURR yet, was kept well in mind when we printed and bound the book. We wanted to do our part as best we could and hope we have pleased you.

For twenty years we have made modest claim to a position as leaders in production of School Annuals. That we have held this leadership in Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia is attested by our success this year in turning out books for leading schools in this section.

Kent State College

JAMES ORZO ENGLEMAN, A.M., LL.D., President

A College of Liberal Arts, granting the degree A.B. and B.S.

A College of Education, granting the degree B.S. in Education, including,—

a. Four-year curricula for high school teachers.
b. Four-year curriculum for elementary teachers.

Two-year courses leading to a diploma and a certificate to teach in Ohio, including,—

a. Curriculum for teachers of the lower grades.
b. Curriculum for teachers of the upper grades.
c. Curriculum for teachers of rural schools.

The College is the envy of many older institutions because of its beautiful location and its inviting surroundings. Upon its campus of approximately one hundred acres are nine substantial buildings, well equipped laboratories, and an excellent library. Its gymnasium is one of the largest in the state. One of its attractive features is its swimming pool, making possible classes in swimming for both men and women. Other special attractions are—

The college theater, its large stage being one of the best lighted and equipped in the state.

Athletic teams that have won increasing respect throughout the Ohio Conference.

A college paper and year book taking high rank among student publications of the state.

A lecture and entertainment course that brings to the college much of the best talent available in the country; and, most important of all, a faculty that is unsurpassed in any of the teachers colleges of the United States.
Epilogue

As the curtains fall announcing the close of a play, so do the final pages announce the close of this issue.

The editors hope that the book is of a pleasing nature and pass on their best wishes for success to the new staff.
